

HOME RUNS A PLENTY

Boston Defeated Cleveland
Again Yesterday.

GIBSON WAS KNOCKED OUT

Selbach, Flick and Ferris Made Four-Baggers and Doubles Were Common Throughout Yesterday's Game.

Boston, August 5.—Cleveland knocked Gibson out of the box in the second inning yesterday afternoon and then lost the game to Boston by the score of 7 to 5. Dineen pitched good ball when he went into the box although Turner lined out a home run in the third.

In the first inning Flick touched up Gibson for a homer, and in the second the Indians got after him hard. Carr doubled to left, and Grant bunted down the third base line. Buelow singled past second, and Carr scored. Ferry was out through Ferris' assist. Jackson doubled to left, and both Grant and Buelow crossed the plate. Then Gibson shot a ball over Armbruster's head, and another score came in. Vinson and Flick fanned.

The Champions got a-going in the same inning and made three runs. Freeman got hit, and Ferris got a hit. Armbruster fanned. Grimshaw, batting for Gibson, hit out a long fly, and Freeman scored. Selbach lined out a homer, sending Ferris ahead of him. Each got a run in the third, Cleveland on Turner's homer, and Boston on Burckett's single, a passed ball and a triple by Stahl.

The visitors were still one score to the good when the home team went to the bat in the fifth. Grant fumbled Parent's grounder. Burckett sacrificed him. Collins doubled to center, scoring Parent, and Freeman's double scored Collins. Ferris hit for a home run in the eighth.

The Itch Fiend

That is Salt Rheum or Eczema,—one of the outward manifestations of scrofula.
It comes in itching, burning, oozing, dryhands, legs or body.

It cannot be cured by outward applications,—the blood must be rid of the impurity to which it is due.

gave a feeble cheer. Then came another dummy streak, when McQuark called Shaughnessy out for interference with "Pepper" Cooper. Dorman was doubled up a minute later when Uniac hit to Wells.

Coombs made a pretty two-sacker in the eighth and Eaton got a base on balls. There was nothing doing. Neither was there for Plattsburg in the ninth, although it looked dubious for the locals when Uniac made a wide throw on Washburn's grounder, and Lauder followed it up with a smashing single. But Dorman ended the game by gobbling Cote's pop. The score:

PEACE, IF JAPAN IS SINCERE.

Says M. Witte to the President.

ENVOYS AT OYSTER BAY.

Tells Roosevelt a Treaty Will Result If Japan Is Reasonable—Indemnity Is Not a Bar.

Oyster Bay, Aug. 5.—"If Japan is sincere in her endeavor for peace the treaty will be signed."

This, according to the statement of a person of unimpeachable authority, was said to President Roosevelt yesterday afternoon by M. Sergius Witte, the Russian envoy.

Mr. Witte is said to have made this statement at the conclusion of the luncheon at which he and his colleague, Baron Rosen, were entertained by President and Mrs. Roosevelt on Sagamore Hill.

On the same authority the President is reported to have said to his distinguished visitors:

"I regret exceedingly that no armistice has been agreed upon pending the peace negotiations. I urged this upon the Japanese envoys, but am sorry to say that nothing has come of it."

The envoys occupied one of the new parlor cars of the Long Island Railroad on their journey from Long Island City and were guarded by three detectives, who watched the doors of the coach all the way to Oyster Bay, but their services were not needed to repel either hostile Japanese or tinsel-haired amatists.

As soon as Baron Rosen and Count Witte reached Sagamore Hill the Russian ambassador made a personal protest to the President against the tactics of the photographers who had accompanied them on the train from New York and had surrounded them in the platform of the Oyster Bay station when they took the President's carriage.

"We do not think it is right to be thus hounded by these men with the cameras," said Baron Rosen. "It is outrageous and would not be permitted in any country in Europe."

President Roosevelt said he would do what he could to remedy the terrible state of things, and dispatched Secret Service Detectives Mosher and Burns down to the station to plead with the photographers to be more gentle with the visitors when they took the train out at 4:30 p. m.

out, by Coombs 4, by Barberick 5; base on balls, by Coombs 2, by Barberick 2; time of game, 1:55; umpire, McQuark; attendance, 350.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

McQuark makes some decisions before the play is completed.
The M. & W. R. R. didn't do the usual thing in the line of accommodation home for Barre patrons.

McQuark assisted Plattsburg to earn one run and gave them the other.

Shaughnessy covered his own field and McMahon's too. With a good fielding pitcher like Morey on the bench it seems foolish to use McMahon in his present condition.

There were really only six hits off Coombs. One fly of Lauders' had to go down for a two-bagger. Shaughnessy in trying to help McMahon out ran from his own position clear to the fence and then dropped the ball. In condition McMahon might have had it easily. Bot-tenus, who declared that the umpire meant well, was given a scratch hit on what was apparently an out.

Uniac's batting still holds strong. He ought to take out some of the kinks in his throwing arm.

Dorman must have thought a cannon ball struck him when he got Lauders' de-vicious attempt in the first inning, and Lauders doesn't play ping pong with his bat.

Cote played for Apperious and robbed him of what might easily have been a three-bagger.

There is a chance for the crowds to brace up.

MINAHAN'S BAD INNING.

Burlington Hit Him Hard in the Eighth, and Rutland Lost Game.

Rutland, August 5.—After standing Burlington off for seven innings with a shut out in sight, Rutland lost the game in the eighth inning yesterday. Minahan was touched up in lively fashion, for ten hits, while Wiggs allowed only four hits. Up to the eighth Minahan was hit only four times, but four safe ones, with a sacrifice, was his undoing in that inning, the visitors making three runs, enough to win. Another hit, followed by an error and a sacrifice added one more in the ninth.

Rutland scored once in the third on two safe hits, and another in the fifth by the aid of a pass, and a sacrifice.
Hazelton's batting was a feature, he getting three hits.

The score by innings:

VETERAN ART TEACHER.

Graduate of the Old Female Seminary—Now in Her 89th Year.

Burlington, Aug. 5.—Mrs. L. A. Hutchins, a native of Middlebury where she also received her early education, completing the same at the old Converse seminary in this city, mastering the art of drawing, painting and penmanship, now in her 89th year and residing on North avenue, is able to do first class work with the pen without the use of glasses. Mrs. Hutchins was born March 9, 1817 and her first school days were in the Castleton and Middlebury seminary and later a student at the Converse seminary, where she was also a teacher some fifty years ago. In drawing and penmanship she has held positions as teacher in many public schools in Vermont and New Hampshire, and also in public schools of Cincinnati, and in Tennessee. She also conducted private schools in Boston, Buffalo and other large cities. During her career as a teacher she fitted out 67 pupils as teachers in penmanship and drawing.

President Roosevelt said he would do
what he could to remedy the terrible
state of things, and dispatched Secret

TWO BOARDS AT WATERSBURY.

New Superintendent Will Not Be Chosen Until Next Month.

The state supervisors of the insane Dr. L. M. Greene, of Bethel, Dr. F. E.
Steele, of Stockbridge, and Dr. G. S.
Foster, of Putney, met the trustees of the state hospital for the insane, Dr.
C. L. Erwin, of Newport Center, W. L.
Dow, of Hardwick and Dan D. Burditt, of Pittsford, at the state hospital Thursday forenoon. The two boards took up matters pertaining to the care of the patients and the business of the institution. It is probably that joint meetings of the two boards will be held frequently during the year.

It can be stated definitely that a superintendent for the hospital will not be chosen until the next regular meeting the first Wednesday in September.

Vermont Office Holders.

Fenton, of Rutland, has been appointed a messenger in the patent office, which came through the civil service. S. C.
Hood of Burlington has been named as scientific assistant in the agricultural department. V. M. Russell of Windsor, Vt., has been named as an aid in the reclamation service, which has its headquarters on a top floor of the Hood building on F street, built and owned by the Willards, Vermonters. Mrs. Agnes M. Farrell of Newport, Vt., has been appointed a laborer in the patent office.
H. A. Duprat of Winoski has been appointed a carpenter at Panama. John D. Johnson of St. Albans has been appointed a clerk at $900 in the state department. S. P. Allen of Burlington has been appointed a copyist in the navy department.

Henry St. Seyr, who has been employed on the summer school farm at Cliff Haven, N. Y., is wanted on a warrant charging him with bigamy. St.
Seyr is alleged to have one wife living in Vermont and another in Peru, Clinton county, N. Y. About eighteen years ago he was married by a justice of the peace in Vermont and lived with this wife for several years. About four years ago, it is charged, he married wife No. 2 in Peru without securing a divorce from No. 1. Wife No. 2 was visiting Vermont a short time ago and, hearing of wife No. 1, located her and became convinced that St. Seyr was a bigamist. When she accused her spouse he admitted his first marriage but said that he thought it "cut no ice," as a justice of the peace tied the knot. He became convinced that he had a term in prison staring him in the face and July 29 drew his revolver from the farm superintendent.
When a deputy sheriff went for him he had disappeared. It is thought he has gone to Canada.

THE CROWD IN TUMULT

Kingrock, in First Heat of 2:21 Trot.
Was Making Final Sprint When He Fell and Hurled Jack-ey from Seat.

Readville, Mass., Aug. 5.—While the spectators that filled the grand stand were on their feet cheering with the excitement of the first heat in the 2:21 trot, yesterday afternoon, Kingrock, the horse driven by Bird Palmer, dropped dead. There was a scene of tumult.
Kingrock was back of the leaders as they turned into the stretch. The track was dry and fast and all the horses were going like the wind. The boy gelding began to close in on the others fast, and the grand stand came to its feet as there was indication of a whirlwind finish, with Palmer's horse in the fore.

Just as he had attained his greatest speed and begun to pass the others the horse broke. Driver Palmer pulled him down instantly, but before the spectators could realize that the break would probably cost the horse the heat he swerved, reared and dropped like a shot.

Palmer was shot from his sulky several feet beyond the horse. In the dust it looked as though he had been run over. Then the driver was seen to rise, run back to the horse's head and lift it.
The animal was dead. He had died before he fell, in all probability. His last sprint to win had been his death.
